Missing Juvenile from Ohio located- Man arrested

August 30, 2012

On Thursday, August 30, 2012 the Bluffton Police Department received a tip from Crime Stoppers of the Low Country regarding a missing juvenile from Loraine, Ohio. The information in the crime tip reported that the missing juvenile was staying at 382 Gardners Circle, Bluffton, South Carolina.

Bluffton Police Officers responded on this tip and went to 382 Gardners Circle. Bluffton Police Officers met with the homeowner, Adonis Riley, who went into his residence and had the 15 year old juvenile turn herself over to Bluffton Police Officers.

Through the investigation it was discovered that the juvenile had been missing since July 2, 2012. The juvenile reportedly received a ride from a truck driver and came down to South Carolina. The juvenile met Riley and began staying with him at his house. The juvenile stayed with Riley for approximately 2 weeks. During this time it was discovered that Riley engaged in sexual intercourse with the juvenile multiple times.

The juvenile was taken into custody and was transported to the Bluffton Police Department. She will be in the custody of DSS until she is transported back to Ohio.

Riley was taken into custody and was later transported to the Beaufort County Detention Center where he is awaiting a bond hearing.
